

Member Application for the Alan Axelrod Memorial Scholarship for Professional Development

Professional Development opportunities are the cornerstone of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning of Rhode Island's mission. As a testament to this priority, the Council established a scholarship for professional development in 2006 to honor the memory of a long-time, devoted member of our PPP-RI family, Alan Axelrod.

Alan served in every leadership role on the PPP-RI Board including President of the Council from 2005-2006 and was well known for championing the "Leave a Legacy" campaign; he held leadership roles in Planned Giving at the University of Rhode Island and the United Way of Southeastern New England (now United Way of Rhode Island) and volunteered for numerous organizations throughout our state.

This professional development scholarship supports one full-tuition at the National Conference on Philanthropic Planning plus reimbursement of reasonable expenses for travel, lodging and meals incurred during the conference stay for a PPP-RI Member who is employed or seeking employment by a not-for-profit organization. All receipts must be submitted immediately after the conference, and no later than December 31, 2019. PPPRI can reimburse you for expenses as they are incurred. There are several options for registration for the conference. Once awarded the scholarship, a member of the PPP-RI board will reach out to you to discuss the ideal registration level.

The Alan Axelrod Memorial Scholarship for Professional Development is supported each year with generous donations from our Members, past scholarship recipients, Board of Directors and partners of PPP-RI.

Eligibility is for PPP-RI Members, employed by a not-for-profit, who are not currently serving in a leadership role on the PPP-RI Board of Directors.

Please submit applications by Friday, June 7, 2019.
